About The Laura Centre

The Laura Centre is a bereavement counselling centre providing confidential counselling for parents affected by the death of a child, and for any child or young person up to the age of 25, affected by the death of a parent/carer or sibling. The Laura Centre provides a holistic range of support including specialist bereavement counselling, which is at the heart of our service. We also offer other therapeutic support, including complimentary therapies, a variety of group work and systemic family therapy work, which the charity aims to develop. We offer a package of care to all beneficiaries, accessing our services, across the geographical area we serve.

The charity is currently looking to provide two exciting opportunities for qualified and experienced counsellors. This work will focus on our clinical delivery in Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland, as well as Derbyshire. We welcome applicants who are compassionate and dedicated to working for a diverse and hardworking team of different therapeutic modalities and backgrounds. We are committed to supporting the wellbeing and personal development of the staff we employ to ensure a healthy and dynamic team.
